

The Kit Carson School District is located in rural southeast Colorado. All of the schools run Monday - Friday, serving around 110 students PK - 12.

The district is currently accepting applications for a High School English Language Arts teacher. This is a full-time position with benefits and possible coaching opportunities. The applicant will be working with 7th - 12th grade students. The high school serves around 32 students with class sizes being small and teachers working together to meet the needs of all students.

Candidate's must have a current Colorado Teaching Certificate or be working toward obtaining one. This position is open until filled. EOE. Please contact Robert Framel at Robert.Framel@kcsdr1.org or 719-962-3219. Applications are on the www.kcsdr1.org website.

Teachers provide instruction that is aligned with the ELA Colorado Academic Standards and the District's organized plan of instructions. Teachers provides differentiated standards-based curricula that is evident to all stakeholders through posted objectives, submitted lesson plans, and student, parent, observer-friendly language.

- Teachers foster a predictable learning environment characterized by acceptable student behavior and efficient use of time.
- Teachers engage students as individuals, including those with diverse needs and interests.
- A safe learning environment includes but is not limited to creating nurturing relationships with students, differentiated lessons that cater to multiple skill levels, collaboration with family, and an effective use of time.
- Teachers demonstrate knowledge about the ways in which learning takes place, including the levels of intellectual, physical, social, and emotional development of students.
- Teachers use formal and informal methods to assess student learning, provide feedback, and use results to inform planning and instruction, such as NWEA. Teachers establish and communicate high expectations and use processes to support the development of critical thinking and problem-solving skills.
- Teachers provides students with the opportunities to work in teams and develop leadership.
- Demonstrate professionalism in and out of the classroom through advocacy and promote district, city, county, and statewide.
- Teachers advocate to the community their events and share their student projects though posting student work, sharing at meetings such as City Council, School Board, etc, and advocate for the changes and development of the district in the community.